Executive and Academic Experience

Mitchell Hamline School of Law

Professor of Law and July 1, 2020 - present

Director of the Native American Law and Sovereignty Institute Sept 2021 - present

In this position, I bring over twenty-five years experience as a lawyer and more than seventeen years as a law professor. I enjoy advising law students and have taught the following courses: Civil Dispute Resolution (first year first civil procedure semester course), Contracts (first year, second semester course) Native American Law and Advanced Topics in Native American Law, Introduction to Tribal Law and Native Law Clinic: Tribal Code Drafting. The courses span from in, online asynchronous and online synchronous. As the Director of the Native American Law and Sovereignty (NALS) Institute, I supervise the Institute staff, oversee the curriculum in Native American Law and Sovereignty Certificate, advise students, serve as the NNALSA Moot Court Competition Coach, and engage in partnerships with Tribal Nations and tribal organizations to support tribal sovereignty. I have served on law school committees including: the admissions committee, the clinic committee, the faculty programming committee, the diversity steering committee, diversity subcommittee on admissions, diversity subcommittee on classroom climate, as an advisor for incoming 1L students and other students, and am a team player.

Visiting Professor

August 2018- June 28, 2020

I taught in the Blended Learning program the following courses: Advanced Indian Law, Civil Dispute Resolution and Introduction to Tribal Law. In January of 2019, I delivered a J-Term paper seminar on International Indigenous Law. In the first year curriculum, I taught one section of the full-time program course, Contracts: Transactional Law.

Bora Laskin Faculty of Law, Lakehead University
Dean and Professor of Law

May 2016 – June 2018

In the role of Dean, I served as the chief administrator, academic leader, and external advocate of the Faculty of Law implementing the three mandates of the law school: Aboriginal and Indigenous Law; Natural Resources and Environmental Law; and Sole practice/Small town practice with the Integrated Practice Curriculum (IPC). Provided leadership as a legal educator and scholar for the sustained success of the Faculty of Law and served on numerous committees and boards promoting that success.

Law School Admissions Council
Diversity Initiatives Committee

2013-2016

One of four committee members appointed to the Subcommittee on Historically Black Colleges (HBCs), Hispanic American Colleges & Universities (HACUs), and Tribal Colleges & Universities (TCUs) for the purpose of building networks with LSAC initiatives. Took the lead in connecting LSAC staff with the National Native American Law Student Association, the National Native American Bar Association and the Executive Board of the American Indian Higher Education Consortium.

University of Idaho
Leadership Academy Cohort Five

2013-2014

Selected to participate in Cohort Five composed of thirteen faculty and staff nominated from departments across the University for the yearlong intensive program of study on topics of leadership, higher education, fiscal stewardship, personnel development, legal and ethical issues and other topics related to university administration.

University of Idaho College of Law 2009-2016
Native American Law Emphasis Program Founder & Advisor

Sole director and advisor for the Emphasis program based upon rigorous academic standards for coursework, legal research papers, and an experiential component established fall of 2009. Over a six-year period, I developed additional components including a Summer Tribal Externship Program and the Native American Law Advisory Board. By May of 2016, 33 students graduated in the Emphasis.

Legal Employment

Associate Attorney/ Consultant

Sept. 2005 – June 2006

Bigler & Rice, LLP, Stroud, OK

As an Attorney Consultant, I assisted the Sac and Fox Nation of Oklahoma Realty Department with general issues, trust applications and representation with the area federal office. I also was a member of a successful attorney litigation team in federal district court enforcing federal statute against the Department of the Interior.

Associate Attorney

Aug. 2004 – Sept. 2005

Legal Advocates for Indian Country, L.L.P., Owasso, OK

As Associate Attorney, I represented Tribal government clients and individual tribal member clients in employment law, family law, agency law, election disputes, and criminal law cases. I also served as needed as tribal prosecutor for firm's contract clients.

Solo Practice, Sisseton, SD

March 2003 – April 2003

I represented clients in eviction proceedings and provided legal advice pre-trial.

Tribal Attorney

Sept. 2002 – Feb. 2003

Sisseton-Wahpeton Sioux Tribe/Oyate, Agency Village, SD

As Tribal Attorney, I coordinated all of the legal affairs of the Tribe as the sole in-house attorney, represented the Tribe in intergovernmental meetings on the local, state, and federal level, provided legal opinions to the Tribal Council, drafted and amended the Tribal Law and Order Code, assisted in structuring tribal economic development entities, and provided representation on land consolidation and taxation issues.

Associate Attorney

March 2002 – Aug. 2002

Hobbs, Straus, Dean & Walker, Oklahoma City, OK

As Associate Attorney, I drafted client memorandums relating to gaming developments, contract negotiations, and internet law.

General Counsel

Jan. 2001 – Oct. 2001

Sisseton-Wahpeton Sioux Tribe, Agency Village, SD

As General Counsel, I was responsible for directing all legal affairs of the Tribe, providing representation in intergovernmental meetings, assisted with cooperative agreements and contracts on behalf of the Tribe, and provided legal memoranda on issues such as land consolidation, taxation issues, gaming regulation, economic development planning and child support enforcement.

Associate Attorney

Aug. 1998 – Feb. 1999

Sonosky, Chambers, Sachse & Endreson, Washington, D.C.

As an Associate Attorney, I assisted the partners on specific research issues for Tribal Nation clients, worked on attorney teams for on-going cases at the tribal, state, and federal level (often appellate cases), and summarized federal regulations for inclusion in frequent legislative bulletins.

Law Clerk

Summers 1996, 1997

Sonosky, Chambers, Sachse & Endreson, Washington, D.C.

As a Law Clerk, I drafted legal memoranda for partners, worked with deposition transcripts and expert report research, analyzed and drafted responses to discovery documents, and utilized national research facilities.
